

Church/Parent Volunteer Information FAQ

Changes to the Child Protective Services Law (CPSL) impact the requirements for who is permitted to serve as a volunteer working with youth and children, effective immediately. This document is meant to assist potential volunteers. Whether you are interested in helping at a single event or volunteering over a period of time, CPSL requires background clearances be obtained. Additionally, changes in the law indicate that Church/Parent volunteers will now be considered “mandated reporters” who are required to report suspicion of child abuse to the Pennsylvania Department of Human Services. The table below defines which activities require clearances and which do not. For activities not listed in the table, consult with the Business Administrator to determine the necessity for clearances.

Activities that require clearances	Activities that do not require clearances
Lead teacher for Sunday School	Reading a story (one time) to a Sunday School class with a lead teacher present

If you have already volunteered within Sewickley Presbyterian Church and have current valid clearances, you may continue to volunteer without providing new clearances/certifications until July 1, 2016.
